World's Strides In Temperance

In reviewing the week's advance in temperance throughout the world, a few interesting facts may be noted. The time was when items of temperance reform had to be gleaned from the official organs of the reform movement itself, but that day has passed, for the great dailies and leading magazines devote columns to a portrayal of the advances gained in the anti-liquor crusade, many of their leading articles being wholly given to a consideration of the movement itself with impressive illustrations and cartoons accompanying the same.

NEW YORK.

On January 1st last there were two dry counties in the state of New York, 450 townships and 250 towns. Since that date, 50 new townships have been added to the list and 64 towns. Local option spreads.

NEW JERSEY.

There are no dry counties in this state. One local election in 1914 was carried by the dries. The reconstruction of the legislature by the increase of membership is thought to favor the prohibitionists.

NEW MEXICO.

On January 1, 1915, New Mexico had one dry county and 25 wet, but most of the territory of the state was dry by precincts and districts. Twenty-two elections were won by the prohibitionists in 1914, and only nine lost. At present writing the legislature has before it a bill to submit prohibition in 1916, with passage improbable.

Australia.

The prohibition movement in Australia and New Zealand has very nearly paralleled the movement in America. Almost every phase experienced in this country has been experienced there, and with similar results in every case. In New Zealand it is estimated that from 69 to 73 per cent of the entire electorate has voted for prohibition in the local elections.

"It is now nip and tuck between New Zealand and the United States as to which will be the first real prohibition country," says Mr. Wesley Spragg, president of the New Zealand Temperance Alliance, and he adds, "We hope to lead, but if we are beaten, no country under the sun will less begrudge the good fortune of the United States than New Zealand."

Canal Zone.

The Panama canal, which will ever stand as the greatest monument to the efficiency of the American army, offers many arguments to the temperance leader. Col. George W. Goethals, builder of the canal and governor of the zone, caused the commission to refuse to renew the licenses of the 35 saloons in the Zone, and issued orders that his men should abstain.

"I had quite a fight against alcoholism among the employees in the 'canal zone,'" says Col. Goethals, "but I finally stamped it out by firing every man reported for drinking."

FRATERNITIES.

Space will not permit the publication of the list of the fraternal orders whose rules now bar liquor men from membership.

Police & Hospital Reports

Lester M. Fishel was arrested by Police Officer Moranha last night charged with heedless and reckless driving of an automobile. The officer reported the car going at more than 30 miles an hour.

M. A. Thompson, an enlisted man of Schofield Barracks, has been arrested by Officer Carter charged with a statutory offense in which a young Chinese girl figured. In an assault upon the woman Thompson is alleged to have left behind a sharpshooter's badge on which was inscribed his name.

Police today are seeking a young Hawaiian, said to have worn a brown shirt and striped trousers, who is charged with entering a store kept by Mary G. Silva. He is said to have inflicted injuries with a knife upon the woman before leaving. The boy is alleged to have made a small purchase and, while the proprietor's back was turned, used the weapon.

Chemical fire extinguisher number 3, answering a call from Kalakaua avenue and Kalia road Saturday afternoon, was badly wrecked at the intersection of King and Kalakaua avenue when the machine skidded, breaking a wheel. The driver and several firemen had a narrow escape from receiving serious injuries. They were thrown to the ground and suffered slight cuts and bruises.

John Hughes, charged with failing to obey an order from a traffic officer while driving an automobile along Fort street, was fined $5 and costs at district court today.

Yee San, Chinese, charged by the police with cutting a downtown corner in violation of the new traffic laws, was fined $5 and costs by District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning.

B. Leibman has again run afoul of the police, charged with a violation of the traffic ordinances. Officer Anderson has alleged Leibman failed to obey the order from a traffic policeman and also reports that Leibman attempted an assault when placed under arrest. Leibman says that the police are determined for some reason or other to make trouble for him. He has entered a plea of not guilty to the several allegations. The case will be brought to trial May 25 before District Magistrate Monsarrat.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Kamsan is expected to leave Hilo for New York by the way of Panama to membership. These include the Masonic bodies, Oddfellows, Knights of Pythias, United Workmen, Yeomen of America, Knights of Columbus, Foresters, Modern Woodmen as well as a score or more similar orders.

'SUNDAY MOVIE' ORDINANCE TO BE UP TONIGHT

The "Sunday Movie" ordinance permitting the exhibition of Biblical and educational films on Sunday, which was passed on first reading by title at the last meeting of the board of supervisors will be up for second reading tonight as amended by Deputy City and County Attorney Lymer.

The ordinance now provides that the police committee, consisting of Supervisors Horner, Larsen and Ahia, will act as a board of censors for all films to be shown on Sunday. When the censors have passed a film the owner of the picture theater must fill out a permit blank with the name of the film where it is to be exhibited and how long it is expected to run enshrined in full. The permit will then be indorsed by the board of supervisors.

The ordinance is expected to pass as only one supervisor, Daniel Logan, voted against the ordinance last meeting. Horner is sponsor for the ordinance.

INTER-ISLAND TENNIS.

Play in the mixed doubles will commence this afternoon at 4:15 on the Moana courts in which some of Hawaii's best men and women players will compete. Four couples have entered. Miss Alice Hopper, ladies' singles champion, and Wm. Eklund, champion in men's singles and doubles, will play together, and are considered by the close followers of the game as the probable winners.

Two new players, Mrs. Grasshof, wife of Capt. Grasshof of the S. M. S. Geier, and Miss Evelyn Carruth will make their initial appearance in local tournament play and much is expected of both. The following is the schedule of the matches:

Miss Pauline Schaefer and A. L. Castle vs. Miss Evelyn Carruth and A. S. Davis.

Miss Alice Hopper and Wm. Eklund vs. Mrs. Grasshof and C. L. Pfleger.

According to news from Hilo, the Waiolama reclamation scheme has been agreed upon after Superintendent Forbes' explanation at a public hearing.

U. S. SOLDIERS HIGHLY LAUDED BY CONGRESSMAN

Representative Moore of Pennsylvania Speaks at Fort Shafter

A stirring address was delivered last night at Fort Shafter by Congressman J. Hampton Moore of Pennsylvania, speaking at the evening service held by Chaplain William Reese Scott of the 2d Infantry.

Practically the entire garrison at Fort Shafter turned out to welcome the congressman and to listen to and applaud his heartfelt words in encouragement of and appreciation for the soldiers in this "frontier" work of the United States army. He said in part: "Coming from the district in Philadelphia where stands the historic Independence hall with all its inspiring memories, enshrining as it does the famous Liberty Bell which proclaimed our ideal to all the world, I naturally take interest in the men who safeguard that priceless honor of our nation."

"At this time when the blazon of war is in the air and its bitter words on every tongue, I want to tell you men that you are not forgotten; although some of you are, like myself, 5000 miles from home. The business men of the country are thinking of you, in a different way today than they did a few weeks ago; the minds that extol and prize peace are now turning their minds to you, thinking of you, trusting to you to maintain the great Christian ideal; your mothers, sisters, families, are wondering and uttering their prayers lest you should be called in the awful maelstrom of war; don't think, men, that you are not thought of, you are in the minds of one hundred millions of people, from the president in the White House and the congressman, down to the children of our great land."

"If in these islands of the Pacific, which we have only held since about 1890 there are many things which you do not obtain and at times you grow discontented and dissatisfied, remember that there are no walks of life in which men obtain their fullest ideals, the banker has his disappointments, the laboring man has his lack of employment, the congressman has his failures; we have been striving in the halls of Congress to secure for years an improvement in the inland waterways along the Atlantic seaboard which have existed in their present and most unsatisfactory conditions since 1829 to 1834. Don't you be discouraged then, men, if you do not ob-

PAY SCHEDULE FOR TEACHERS MADE EXPLICIT

No Chance for Further Misunderstandings Between Commissioners and Normal Staff

New rules regulating the pay of Normal training and high school teachers were adopted by the board of school commissioners today. While the new schedule is neither an advancement or reduction in the present salaries, it brings up-to-date and makes more explicit the old regulation which, at times, has caused slight misunderstandings between the department and teachers.

Under the new rules, Normal training and high school teachers shall be paid as follows:

First year, $1000; second year, $1100; third year, $1200; fourth to tenth year, inclusive, $1500, and thereafter $1800.

Normal practise teachers and teachers in the high school who do not devote their entire time to high school work shall be paid as follows:

First year, $900; second year, $960; third year, $1020; fourth year, $1080; fifth year, $1200 (maximum).

The following regulation pertaining to extra pay for instructors in vocational training also was adopted:

"When special instruction is given in vocational training subjects this time (8 until 2 o'clock, the school hours) may be extended in the case of pupils who are given such instruction."

"Qualified teachers in charge of school kitchens and carpenter shops may be paid $10 a month additional salary (except for July and August) for satisfactory service when such instruction involves extra time for teaching. Such additional salary shall not be taken into consideration in the computing of vocational salary."

The commission this morning completed its revision of the 1911 rules and regulations. The new leave of absence and salary rules were the only important changes made. Commissioner L. G. Blackman and Superintendent Henry W. Kinney were appointed a committee to read the proofs of all rules before they are finally printed, and also arrange the rules in their proper places. When the rules are signed by all the commissioners they will be presented to the governor for his perusal and acceptance.

This afternoon the commission is taking up the appointment of teachers for the coming school year. The lists of appointments will not be made public until all are complete.

would certainly grow discontented because there was nothing left to desire, there would be no happiness here and certainly no need of a hereafter with its looked for mending of the ills of the world.

"If we strive to keep the inner man loyal to the better instincts of manhood, what matters it if others of inferior instincts of manhood do not respect in the high manner that we do the khaki uniform of the United States government that you are proud to wear and the vast millions of our countrymen respect and honor in the high sense that you do."

The singing of the old hymns and war songs led by Chaplain Scott and assisted by the orchestra under Cpl. Francis Leigh of the regimental band, thrilled the congressman through and through and he remarked that when the men stood up in the service and sang the "Song of the Second Regiment" to the old tune of Juanita, he was overcome with the deepest emotion to find such a spirit of loyalty to a regiment as was manifested by the depth of feeling both in the words and in the manner of singing; when he heard "America," sung by the men he was free to say that he had never heard such wonderful music anywhere and that the audience, its music and its devotion, confirmed him in his statement, that in peace or war the 2d Infantry could be depended upon to face any foe with its heroic courage and to defend with loyalty the unsullied flag of our nation.

The congressman spoke of the fact that the work of the chaplain in the United States army may have its discouragements, but it certainly could have the most marvelous results that he had ever seen obtained by the clergy in any walk of life and that the call to the nation was, the best of men for chaplains and the best chaplains for our men.
